The National Defense Transportation Association (NDTA) Announces 2008 Scholarship Winners - “our Industry’s Future”

The Voice of Defense Transportation

26 June, 2008

[Alexandria, VA – June 26, 2008] — Congratulations to the 2008 NDTA National Scholarship Winners - deserving young people who are “our Industry’s Future!” And sincere thanks to our Chapters and Corporate Sponsors who make tuition assistance possible through the NDTA Foundation at both National and regional levels.

NDTA offers tuition assistance to its members and their financial dependents through several Scholarship Program options. Program A awards are earmarked for college students enrolled in an undergraduate degree program in transportation, physical distribution, logistics, or a combined curriculum. Program B is intended for college freshmen and graduating high school students planning to attend college.

Throughout the year, various fund raising activities are staged to support the NDTA Scholarship Foundation. Chapters organize local events, and during the annual NDTA Forum & Expo - held this year September 20 -24, 2008 in Reno / Tahoe - corporate members host a golf tournament and evening festivities. Northwest Airlines will sponsor a Golf Tourney at The Resort at Red Hawk (9/21); YRC Worldwide will host a Scholarship Dinner at the National Auto Museum (9/21); and FedEx will present “A Back Stage Pass” (9/22), a clever behind-the-scenes glimpse of former MGM chorus line dancer, Karen Burns. For more information on these Scholarship fund raising events or for other Forum offerings, visit www.ndtahq.com/forum.htm.
