

“Most significant chapter event ever held”

- Scott Hood, Acting Tampa Bay Chapter President

NDTA Tampa Bay got a special treat in February, a port visit from the US Navy's first Joint High Speed Vessel, USNS Spearhead. Chapter tours like this take a lot of hard work and coordination, this one involving chapter members from U.S. Central Command, USCENTCOM's Strategic Movement Center, MSC, and LNO staff members. The luncheon prior to hitting the St. Petersburg Pier featured guest speaker NDTA President LTG Ken Wykle, USA (Ret.). Photo Courtesy NDTA Florida State President Daren Baker.

“San Antonio Roundup!”

Membership Drive Update ---

We've passed the halfway point of the annual COL Grabowski Recruiting Drive, and it's clear to see which chapters gained support over the Holidays and in the first month of 2013.

Starting at the top of the alphabet in Category I, the All American Chapter scored nine points to jump in 1st place as Aloha slid to third. Amazing outreaching efforts in Maryland last month gave the Baltimore Chapter 19 points, tying them for 2nd with Benelux.

Category II is clearly the most competitive. San Antonio's pride in hosting this year's Forum shows, as they continue their hold on 1st place. Not far behind though, are ties for both 2nd (Charleston & Puget Sound) and 3rd (Cape Fear & San Francisco Bay Area).

In Category III, Scott-St. Louis is within reach of Washington, DC, but both are far ahead of Atlanta, in 3rd.

In a time of uncertainty, with government and military travelers making fewer trips to conferences, our chapters are in the spotlight, as the place where Defense Logisticians can most easily connect. With under five months remaining in the “San Antonio Roundup!”, now's the time to make your best move.

A-35ers Recruiting & Volunteering

Fresh off a profile-raising community activity in which they collected so many Holiday gifts for the Children's Foundation of Mid-America, Inc., they had to use an RV to deliver them, Scott-St. Louis A-35ers held a 2013 Kick-Off Social at a local grill. About 20 were expected to attend, where members and guests shared ideas for outreach events and activities in 2013.

The chapter scored 23 points in the recruiting contest in January. Is there a correlation? Probably. Does a variety of chapter events - luncheons with guest speakers, membership socials, community activities and tours - pay off? Definitely.

Great work, Chapter 82! Visit them at <http://www.ndtascottstlouis.org/>
