NDTA to present a “Railroad Roundtable” at the Transportation Corps Conference, Ft. Eustis, Virginia

The voice of Defense Transportation

[Alexandria, VA - June 26, 2009] --- As its contribution to celebrating the service of the veterans of the U.S. Army Military Rail Service, who will be honored, at the Annual Transportation Corps Conference this July, NDTA will sponsor a Transportation Roundtable on Tuesday, July 28th from 11:30am to 2pm, which will cover current topics of special interest to the rail industry. Speakers from the Association of American Railroads, the Military Surface Deployment & Distribution Command, and CSX Transportation will participate, and key issues will include Positive Train Control, the Railroads for National Defense Program, flatcar supply, and the current state of affairs. Attendees of the NDTA Roundtable will have the opportunity to pose questions to subject matter experts.

The Roundtable agenda will include a plated lunch, hosted by NDTA National Headquarters and the NDTA Regimental Chapter and will take place at the U.S. Army Transportation Museum, 300 Washington Blvd, Besson Hall, Fort Eustis Virginia. Military Rail Service Veterans from World War II and the Korean War will join as special guests.

Everyone with an interest in railroading and who would like to pay tribute to our country's veteran service members are welcome to attend. The luncheon cost is $11.00 per person. To register, please contact Ms. Georgia Kypriandes: (757) 878-4207. For information concerning the Transportation Corps Conference, please contact Marc Metz: (717) 597-2636.
