

Course Title: Ammunition and Explosives Safety Workshop

Abstract: The transportation of ammunition and explosives (AE) can be high risk and, if unsafely transported, could pose a significant threat to transportation workers, emergency responders and the general public. This session will cover DOD efforts to evaluate and improve the safety performance of individual Transportation Service Provider AE carriers.

Intendend Audience: All experience levels.

Organization: HQ SDDC Safety Branch, Scott AFB, IL 62225
