

Tim Burke

Government-wide Category Executive for Travel
Director Office of Travel, Employee Relocation and Transportation
Federal Acquisition Service
U.S. General Services Administration

Mr. Burke is a member of the Senior Executive Service and has been the Director of the Office of Travel, Employee Relocation, and Transportation, Federal Acquisition Service (FAS) since 2007. He serves as the Senior Executive responsible for the planning, implementation and administration of over $4.5 Billion of federal acquisitions. In 2016 he was appointed by the Office of Management and Budget as the Government-wide Category Executive for the $10.9B Travel Category. Mr. Burke also serves as the Travel and Expense Service Area Lead on the Office of Shared Solutions and Performance Improvement (OSSPI) Business Standards Council. In these tri-lateral and matrixed leadership roles, he provides government-wide strategic direction and leads stakeholder collaboration for all of Travel and Expense. His expansive leadership is building the framework for Travel and Expense as a future shared service.

At FAS, as Director of the Office of Travel, Employee Relocation and Transportation he manages the procurement of 12 government-wide programs representing in excess of $4.5B in spend and has developed a strategic sourcing focus for all business areas. His leadership provides the subject matter expertise and procurement support so customers can stay focused on their mission. Due to this leveraged buy, business approach, the savings are significant - estimated $2.2B is saved annually with the City Pair airline program alone.

Mr. Burke is a recipient of the prestigious President's Rank Award, Fed 100 Award, GSA Meritorious Service Award and the Industry Advisory Council's Excellence.gov Award. Business Travel News named Mr. Burke one of 25 Most Influential Executives of 2007, 2010 and 2012. He represented GSA on OMB's Shared Services Advisory Committee which resulted in the launch of the Unified Shared Services Management (USSM) Office in October of 2015. Currently he is the Co-Chair of the Senior Travel Officials Council.

Prior to joining GSA, Mr. Burke was a corporate executive leading business development, strategic sourcing and supply chain enterprises in the travel industry. Leadership roles included Executive Vice President/Principal of World Travel Partners, now BCD, currently a $24B dollar global travel management and technology firm. Executive Vice President Carlson Companies, leading franchise, commercial and leisure services and products with gross sales exceeding $1B annually. United Airlines Executive responsible for ensuring delivery and managing air passenger and technology services for the distribution, corporate, leisure, domestic and international markets.
