

Transportation Academy (aka Breakout Sessions)

- 70 interactive seminars/classes; 8 one-hour sessions with 8-9 seminars/classes per session
- CEU credits thru McKendree University ($35 admin fee)
- CET credits for DoD financial management personnel (no cost)

2023 Transportation Academy Tracks	USTRANSCOM Priority	Description
Military & Commercial Transportation/Logistics	Ready Now & in the Future	Global Mobility Capacity – Represents the ability to fully mobilize the Total Force at the point of need. Transition seamlessly between defense and commercial capacity at the speed of war.
Worldwide Access & Alliances	Ready Now & in the Future	Global Mobility Posture – Posture is the foundation of power projection, and it relies on operational access, basing, and overflight (ABO), facilitated through strong relationships with allies and partners.
Global Mobility Enablers	Ready Now & in the Future	Acquisition, Finance, Policy, & Legal
Cybersecurity & IT Best Practices	Cyber Domain Mission Assurance	Cyber defense efforts must encompass entire enterprise, including industry partners, where all embrace cyber discipline and vigilance.
Data, AI, ML, & Analytics	Decision Advantage	Leverage advanced and emerging technologies, such as AI & machine learning, to help sense and make sense of data at scale. Treat data as a strategic asset.
Professional Development, Human Resources, & Leadership	Competitive & Resilient Team	Prioritize investment in people.
SDDC Workshop	Ready Now & in the Future	SDDC SMEs provide information & training on various topics/focus areas for military/USG & commercial partners providing surface logistics & transportation.